PRESS RELEASE

On January 10, 2010 at approximately 12:45am Middletown Police officers responded to 200 Main Street, Metro Square on a reported structure fire. Upon arrival officers observed smoke billowing from the roof of the building directly above Enzo's restaurant.

Middletown Fire responded at which time they made entry into the building and extinguished the fire. An employee of the restaurant was injured as a result of the fire. The party was transported to Middlesex Hospital by Hunters ambulance where they were treated for smoke inhalation.

The Middletown Police with the assistance of Middletown Fire and the Connecticut State fire marshals office is conducting an investigation into the cause of the fire. At this point the investigation is ongoing. Anyone with information is encouraged to call the Middletown police department Detective Division at 860-344-3240.
